ANOTHER ONE

BRAND GUIDELINES AND VISUAL IDENTITY

Typography, spatial harmony, and visual identity for the collection

VERSION 1 | OCTOBER 2026

One. Another. Another one again.

The brief asks what happens if something can be complete on its own and still become something else in the presence of another. The collection answers with three states. The identity makes them visible without explaining them.

STATE 1 | ONE

ELSEWISE 01

There is one.

STATE 2 | ANOTHER

ELSEWISE 02

There is another one.

STATE 3 | TOGETHER

ELSEWISE 01 & 02

And together, another one again.

"Same word. Two states. Roman stands complete; italic is the moment it meets another."

Wordmark construction & rationale

ANOTHER ONE

HOUSE OF KNOTS | HOUSE ORIGINALS

ANOTHER | ROMAN

Cormorant Garamond Light 300, caps, tracking +20%. Upright, settled, complete on its own. Never subordinate.

ONE | ITALIC

Cormorant Garamond Light 300 Italic, caps, tracking +12%. The same word leaning toward another. The arrival of meeting.

INHERENT HARMONY

The letters O, N, and E already live inside ANOTHER. ONE is not added; it is extracted and shifted into motion.

Naming & notation system

The terracotta ampersand appears only when two complete pieces meet. It is never used when a piece stands alone.

COMPONENT PRINCIPLES

- Responsive breakpoints at 640px and 1024px.
- Safe-area insets preserved on mobile viewports.
- Dual studio cut & architectural in-situ modes.
- High-resolution tactile pile inspection modal.
- Direct architectural quote and specification desk.

The calm gallery grid

The Together tile always lands in the exact centre of the grid on a repeating cycle.

RHYTHM & CURATORIAL LAW

A | ONE: Single rug centred on bone ground.
B | ANOTHER: Second rug in the same position.
C | TOGETHER: Both rugs, gap narrow, ampersand. Always in center.
D | TEXTURE: Macro crop of hand-sheared Tibetan pile.
E | CAPTION: Bone tile with single italic quote.
F | ROOM: Architectural interior room photograph.
G | NOTATION: Deep moss-black tile with terracotta ampersand.

- Never repeat a tile type next to itself.
- Dark tile once every 9 posts. Caption tile once every 3.

Six tiles, one rhythm (1080 × 1350)

APPROVED CAPTION BANK (VOICE: SPARSE, THREE BEATS, SENTENCE CASE, NO EMOJIS)

"There is one. / There is another one. / And together, another one again. / Elsewise 01. Complete. / Elsewise 02. Also complete. / Sidelong, alone. Sidelong, together. / Nothing missing. Something more. / Odd Company, complete in itself. / Live with one. Live with another. / Made to be lived with."

Physical artefacts & touchpoints

Integrity & boundary rules

✓ ALWAYS COMPLETE

Every rug is presented as a whole piece with complete outline. Each piece has independent architectural integrity.

× NEVER CROPPED

Never slice half a rug or crop off its silhouette to suggest that it needs another half to be whole.

× NEVER CONNECTED

Never draw jigsaw lines, puzzle snaps, magnets, or interlocking edges. The collection is never modular.

PUZZLE / MODULAR

× NEVER LOUD

No exclamation marks, no emojis, no neon hues, no aggressive sale language. Quiet luxury whispers.

BUY NOW!!

"Each piece complete. Nothing missing, nothing joined, nothing loud."
